

Barbara Fleischauer wants to see a West Virginia where:

...every baby is born into a loving family.

...every child is assured decent healthcare

...every family has a chance for better jobs.

Delegate Fleischauer has her priorities straight.
Single issue extremists don't.

Delegate Fleischauer is ready to work for more affordable healthcare, better jobs, and fixing our transportation system. Barbara is also focused on improving our schools, protecting children and ensuring sufficient funding for WVU.

However, single issue extremists want to continue the negative politics by misrepresenting Delegate Fleischauer and twisting her record. Instead of joining together to solve our problems, single issue extremists focus only on prohibiting ALL abortions, even in cases of rape and incest, and defeating all legislators who won't follow their directions.

Let's set the record straight.

Barbara is not pro-abortion. She is a wife and mother who strongly believes in the importance of family. Delegate Fleischauer believes we should do everything we can to reduce the need for abortions so that they will be rare. She opposes late term abortions, but believes that common sense requires exceptions for cases of rape, incest, and to protect the life and health of the mother.

Barbara believes that West Virginians should work together on prevention of unintended pregnancies and supporting at-risk families - especially single moms and teen parents. Surely those issues, along with healthcare, jobs, and transportation are things we can all agree to work on together.

Barbara Will Work To Find Common Ground.
